

I ask that you consider public input into any decision regarding changing the laws/rule regarding public ownership of medias. Last I looked America was a democracy. I would hope that all elected and appointed members involved in considering changing things, at least be open to public input. It is afterall the basis of our country.
thanks, jane